

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

RAHUL MANCHANDA,

Plaintiff,

-against-

GOOGLE, YAHOO, MICROSOFT BING,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 1:16-cv-03350 (JPO)(JCF)

YAHOO INC.'S REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201, and in support of its concurrently filed Motion to Dismiss, Defendant, Yahoo, Inc. (“Yahoo”), respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of (1) an order dismissing a virtually identical case brought by Plaintiff in the Supreme Court of the State of New York; and (2) the webpages located at the following URL addresses, which are identified in Paragraph 8 of Plaintiff’s Complaint:

1. <http://nypost.com/2015/06/01/woman-says-man-from-sugar-daddy-site-threatened-to-kill-her/>;
2. <http://www.ripoffreport.com/r/Manchanda-Law-Offices-Rahul-Manchanda/New-York-New-York-10005/Manchanda-Law-Offices-Rahul-Manchanda-Lets-unite-and-fight-this-guy-I-already-won-a-fee-337859>;
3. <http://www.ripoffreport.com/r/Rahul-Manchanda/internet/Rahul-Manchanda-Rahul-Dev-Manchanda-Manchanda-Law-FirmRahul-Manchanda-Rahul-Manchanda-F-1065994>;
4. <http://www.complaintsboard.com/complaints/manchanda-law-office-pllc-new-york-new-york-c382370.html>; and

5. <http://usacomplaints.com/shops-trade/594091-manchanda-law-firm-rahul-manchanda-complaints-reviews.html>

(Compl., ¶ 8; Dkt. No. 1). A true and correct copy of the State Court dismissal is attached as Exhibit 1. True and correct copies of printouts of the foregoing webpages, printed by the undersigned on May 12, 2016, are attached as Exhibits 2-6.

On a motion to dismiss under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), “the Court is limited to reviewing the complaint, any documents attached to the complaint or incorporated into it by reference, any documents that are ‘integral’ to the plaintiff’s allegations, even if not explicitly incorporated by reference, and facts of which the Court may take judicial notice.” Biro v. Conde Nast, 963 F. Supp.2d 255, 264 (S.D.N.Y. 2013) (citation omitted). A court may take judicial notice of facts that “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2). Such sources include judicial opinions. See, e.g., Hayes v. Perotta, 751 F. Supp.2d 597, 599 (S.D.N.Y. 2010) (taking judicial notice of court proceedings, including transcripts and judicial opinions). “The court may take judicial notice at any stage of the proceeding.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(d). “[A] court should take judicial notice to determine what statements the documents contain[,] not for the truth of the matter asserted.” Biro, 963 F. Supp.2d at 265 (citation, internal quotation marks, brackets, and ellipses omitted).

The prior court order dismissing Plaintiff’s near-identical claims against is judicially noticeable because it “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Judicial notice of the webpages is appropriate because Plaintiff incorporates the webpages into the Complaint by reference. Additionally, because every cause of action Plaintiff seeks to hold Yahoo liable for is based entirely on the webpages identified in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint, the webpages are “integral to the plaintiff’s allegations,” and judicially noticeable on that basis.

Accordingly, Yahoo respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of (1) the New York State Supreme Court’s dismissal of a near identical case brought by Plaintiff; and (2) the webpages identified in Paragraph 8 of the Complaint (and above), by either viewing the webpages on a computer, or reviewing the printouts attached as Exhibits 2-6.

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
NEW YORK COUNTY

PRESENT: HON. MILTON A. TINGLING

PART 44

ANONYMOUS,

INDEX NO. 101158/13
MOTION DATE 8/15/2013

PLAINTIFF,

-v-

DOES, JOHN 1 THRU 47,

DEFENDANTS.

FILED

MAR 27 2014

Upon the foregoing papers, it is ordered that these claims be dismissed.

COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE
NEW YORK

Plaintiff, Anonymous, moves the court for a restraining order against Google, Microsoft, and Ripoff Report and John Does 1-40. Google and Microsoft have responded that they are not parties to this action and are not bound by state or local laws. Plaintiff seeks $10,000 in damages from Google, Microsoft and/or Ripoff Report.

In the instant case, the plaintiff is a lawyer. He is claiming that John Does 1-47 posted defamatory/ libelous/ slanderous and terroristic threats against him and his business on Ripoffreport.com. Plaintiff also claims that defendants have infringed on his trademark. Plaintiff has trademarked his name and business name. These negative reviews were posted on Ripoff Report and the URL's appear when his name or business name are searched on the search engines of Google and Microsoft. He is now seeking damages from the aforementioned parties. Plaintiff is also seeking a restraining order to force Ripoff Report, Google and Microsoft to remove the information and the URL's from the websites. Plaintiff obtained a temporary restraining order. Google and Microsoft were the only ones to respond. Google states in their letter to Plaintiff that they are not a party to this action and that plaintiff must follow the proper procedure before Google will remove the information. Google informed plaintiff that they are not bound by state or local laws to remove the URL's from their search engine. However, Google's policy is if the website (in this case Rip-off Report) refuses to remove the information after an order has been granted, Google will voluntarily remove the information. Microsoft gave a similar response. There was no response from Rip-off Report, or John Does 1-47. Plaintiff also asks for $10,000 to be removed from the New York bank accounts of Rip-off Report, Google and Microsoft.

To have URL's removed from Google or Microsoft a plaintiff must bring a federal action. Section 230 of Title 47 of the United States Code states that, "'No provider or user of an interactive computer service shall be treated as the publisher or speaker of any information provided by another information content provider.'" This federal law preempts any state laws to the contrary: "[n]o cause of action may be brought and no liability may be imposed under any State or local law that is inconsistent with this section." The courts have repeatedly rejected attempts to limit the reach of Section 230 to "traditional" Internet service providers, instead treating many diverse entities as "interactive computer service providers." Section 230 is not without exceptions. The Communications Decency Act provides immunity to an Internet service provider that merely publishes user-generated content, as long as its actions do not rise to the level of a content provider. To determine whether a internet service provider is excluded from liability the courts have looked to three questions: (1) Whether the defendant is a provider of an interactive computer service; (2) If the postings at issue are information provided by another information content provider; and (3) Whether plaintiff's claims seek to treat the defendant as a publisher or speaker of the third party content. When the Plaintiff is looking to treat the defendant as a publisher or speaker the court must see how close the provider is to the information.

When evaluating if Section 230 applies to Google and Microsoft it is clear they are interactive computer services and are therefore protected by the immunity granted by Section 230. Neither Google nor Microsoft can be brought before State courts for claims of liability for any cause of action that is inconsistent with Section 230. In this case the answers to the aforementioned questions show: (1) Google and Microsoft are both interactive service providers; (2) they both posted information provided by another information content provider (Rip-off Report) and (3) Plaintiff is looking to make them a publisher of the information. However they are not a publisher of the information. The information was user-generated content that was posted on a different Internet site. Google and Microsoft only provide a search that when the plaintiffs name or business name is input, the information becomes accessible. Therefore Google and Microsoft are immune from this cause of action under Section 230 of Title 47 of the United States Code. Google and Microsoft made this clear to Plaintiff in their responses. They informed Plaintiff that they are not a party to this case, they are not liable to plaintiff for any damages, and they are not restricted by any restraining order issued by the State Courts. However, if plaintiff follows the correct procedure and gets an order for Rip-off Report to remove the content and they refuse Google and Microsoft will voluntarily remove the information from their system. Google and Microsoft are under no obligation to remove the URL's from their search results.

Ripoff Report is an interactive website, which describes itself as a worldwide consumer reporting website and publication, by consumers, for consumers to file and document complaints about businesses, professionals or individuals. The Rip-off Report's published policy is that it will not remove a report from its website even if the report is adjudged defamatory or even if the author requests the report be taken down. The Rip-off Report's policy is that any statement posted on its website is a permanent record. The defendant offers links to third party commercial fee-based services to remove any defamatory or false reports posted to Rip-off Report. As an interactive computer service they are also protected under Section 230. The information posted on their website is posted by third parties. Here, in order for Plaintiff to have Ripoff Report excluded from protection under Section 230, he would have to show that Ripoff Report acted as a speaker or publisher for the content posted by these third parties. That has not been proven in this case.

Plaintiff also claims that the information posted on Rip-off report violates his trademark. Trademark infringement happens when you use a trademark owner's trademark or a similar mark in a way that is likely to confuse the public about the source or sponsor of your products or services. Although trademark law provides trademark owners with a powerful tool for protecting the integrity of their trademarks, the law does not permit them to silence legitimate reporting, commentary, criticism, and artistic expression. As one court put it: "Trademark rights do not entitle the owner to quash an unauthorized use of the mark by another who is communicating ideas or expressing points of view." L.L. Bean, Inc. v. Drake Publishers, Inc., 811 F.2d 26, 29 (1st Cir. 1987). Because of the important role that trademarks play in our cultural vocabulary, "much useful social and commercial discourse would be all but impossible if speakers were under threat of an infringement lawsuit every time they made reference to a person, company or product by using its trademark." The New Kids on the Block v. News America Publ'g, 971 F.2d 302, 306 (9th Cir. 1992). The primary goal of trademark law is to protect consumers from confusion about the source or sponsorship of goods or services. Here the plaintiff trademarked his name and business. To have an infringement the statements posted would have to have created confusion for consumers. Trademarks do not protect the creator from the public's rights to commentary and criticism. The court has often found that trademark use is often found in criticism of a company or business and this allowance is important but would be impossible if speakers always feared a lawsuit. Here consumers who were unsatisfied with the services plaintiff provided were addressing Plaintiff's name and business in criticisms. Google, Microsoft and Rip-off report were conduits for this criticism but were not making the postings themselves.

In the instant case, Plaintiff has not established that a trademark infringement has occurred and that any exclusion to the immunity granted to Google, Microsoft, and Ripoff Report by 47 U.S.C 230 is applicable. Accordingly the complaint is here by dismissed, as there is no viable cause of action from which relief can be granted.

Clerk is directed to enter judgment accordingly.

Woman says 'sugar daddy' threatened her with butcher knife

By Rebecca Rosenberg

June 1, 2015 | 1:46am

A top immigration lawyer who regularly appears on the cable-news networks threatened to kill a gal pal he met on a sugar-daddy website, Manhattan court papers allege.

Rahul Manchanda, 42, waved a butcher knife and acted as if he were going to toss it at 30-year-old squeeze Kate Bose, a graphic designer for Ralph Lauren, according to court documents.

During the pair's late-night brouhaha inside Manchanda's posh Financial District pad in August, the lawyer bizarrely bellowed, "The government trusts me to kill people! I'll f—king kill you! I don't give a f—k anymore!" the criminal complaint states.

The hotheaded barrister met Bose in 2013 through SeekingArrangement.com, which pairs wealthy fat cats with young women who want to be spoiled, according to court papers.

Manchanda was arrested when he turned himself in at the First Precinct on Sept. 2. He is set to next appear in court Wednesday.

At the precinct, he allegedly railed to cops about his ex-flame, who previously worked for L'Oreal, Mac Cosmetics and Kenneth Cole, according to her LinkedIn page.

"This is bulls—t!" Manchanda raged, according to court papers. "The girl is the one who did stuff to me. You don't have any evidence on me. What's your evidence?"

"This is ridiculous what she is going to get away with. She [is] a reoccurring drug addict. I've saved her life. This is what happens. You save their lives, and they try to take advantage of you. She extorted money from me the whole time."

Manchanda was charged with menacing, harassment and possession of a weapon after the spat at his digs near the New York Stock Exchange.

The lawyer, who specializes in international litigation, has appeared on networks such as CNN and Fox News to discuss everything from Justin Bieber's possible deportation back to Canada to the tribunal trial of Saddam Hussein.

In a bid to have the charges against him dismissed, the Boston University grad charged in court papers filed March 16 that Bose was nothing more than a "violent drug-addicted alcoholic and career prostitute" who has been extorting him since they met.

Manchanda said Bose continues to call him at all hours, that she recanted the allegations in a November e-mail to the assistant district attorney — and even says she asked that the restraining order against him be withdrawn.

Manchanda also accused her of having previously filed similar complaints against former beaux.

Manhattan Supreme Court Justice Tandra Dawson denied the motion to dismiss, and prosecutors are proceeding with the case without Bose's cooperation.

Manchanda's lawyer, Todd Spodek, told The Post, "This complainant has zero credibility, she has recanted numerous times, and we will fight these frivolous allegations."

Bose didn't return calls requesting comment.

REBUTTAL BOX™ | Respond to this Report!

Manchanda has many postings against him on this site; most of them have the same complaint, people have been overcharged, incorrectly or fraudently billed, misrepresented, and lied to. It is attorneys like this that give others a bad name. Everyone that has filed here has done so for one reason, to stop the same thing from happening to someone else. You feel that it is your duty to make a statement that can help protect others from predators like this.

It is your duty to do that. You can do that and more. You may even be able to get some of your hard earned money back, or better yet to put this guy where he belongs; out of business, behind bars, or back working at a burger joint making french fries and wondering how he is going to pay his mortgage without stealing like the rest of us are.

I filed a complaint against Manchanda with the Joint Committee on Fee Disputes, and I won my case. I did not hire a lawyer, it was quite easy to do. They are nice people that are there to help you, they want to rid the system of operators like this that give all lawyers a bad name.

In my case Manchanda was directed to return over 1/3 of my retainer, plus drop the legal fees of $2700 that he charged for his defense of my complaint. Manchanda's lawyer said before we started that the defense charges were billed in error, even though they were billed for 8 months with Manchanda attempting to put them in my credit report. The court procedure was completed in 2 hours with my participation on the telephone from my house.

Please for all of us, file a complaint where it matters. File a complaint with the: Joint Committee On Fee Disputes and Reconciliation, 14 Vesey Street, NY, NY 10007 Ph. 212-267-6646, ext 207, Fax 212-406-9252

As well as: NYS Bar Department Disciplinary Committee, Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Judicial Department, 61 Broadway, NY, NY 10006. Phone 212-401-0800, fax 212-401-0810

They will help you. They will also get very tired of hearing the name "Rahul Manchanda" and company.

I also plan to set up a website in the near future so everyone can get together and go after this guy as one. Keep checking this site for more information.

SUBMITTED: Monday, December 06, 2010

We have a case pending against Manchanda as well. I am a computer consultant that did work for him back in April of this year. When I began several of the attorneys working there were being fired without pay. As we began billing him the office manager (a new hire) was also let go without pay. This seems to be common practice for him. Anyone who has worked for and has been ripped off by Mr Manchanda please contact me. Our case is pending this month in NYC. Please contact me for details.

Rahul Benjamin Manchanda?

AUTHOR: KA - (United States of America)

SUBMITTED: Friday, February 19, 2010

Mr. Rahul Manchanda - I am aware of your IT talents and how you have a million websites - all singing songs of glory for you - the IMMIGRATION SPECIALIST. Reality is, you shouldn't be allowed in the same room as other competent lawyers, as it is a disrespect to them.

You find it funny when you write praises about yourself all over the internet, but this is not funny to your ex-clients whose bank accounts are empty and lives destroyed because you overcharged them and delivered NOTHING.

Its easy to believe him when he tries to sell his services to you. It sounds like you are getting the whole INS (BSCIS), IRS, FBI working for you, but after you sign the retainer, you will notice forget these agencies, even he doesnt have a clue how to solve your case; his other attorneys will quit the case midway; you will be billed when the new attorney spends hours going through all your documents (I paid for this TWICE!) and when there is no attorney in his office, your case will be assigned to the secretary.

A request to anyone even THINKING about hiring the Manchanda Law Office:-

1. Do your research; ask around; if you find ONE happy customer coming out of that office, go for it.
2. If you can't find anyone who used this lawyer before, go by referrals, do not even think about calling his office.

I spoke with Mr. Manchanda about my husband that was deported 3 years ago. He guaranteed me that he will bring him home no more than 3 months. I was absolutely thrilled. He requested me to send the file and $5,000. and I told him I was going to have to borrow the money. I explained the situation that I had nothing left since my husband was our full financial supporter. I also just got a job at the time making 8.00/hr. He told me don't worry I will get him home and then we will sue the government for the pain and suffering they put us through. He said my husband's case was simple and not to worry. I even said please don't leave me without an attorney. He said absolutely not I like you and I feel your pain. He also knew at the time that our daughter had issues of depression from see her father being picked up and deported and plus he knew also of my manic depression issue also. He received the money spent it all in a month and charged me more on top. I tried to talk to him and he turned from being a nice guy to a rude, greedy, money, hungry, bs'er. He had people in his office calling me and harassing me for $500.00 and said to me if I couldn't afford it I should have gotten another attorney. Like really!!! He gave his word to me he would work with me and help me get my husband home and NON of it was true. Don't believe this man because he is a crook and everyone at the office.

We have a case pending against Manchanda as well. I am a computer consultant that did work for him back in April of this year. When I began several of the attorneys working there were being fired without pay. As we began billing him the office manager (a new hire) was also let go without pay. This seems to be common practice for him. Anyone who has worked for and has been ripped off by Mr Manchanda please contact me. Our case is pending this month in NYC. Please contact me for details.

Please do not hire this lawyer. He is the worst immigration lawyer in NYC. Ask around. He will totally rip you off and do a terrible job on your case. Read his many complaints on /link removed/

Also do not work for him. It will be a waste of time as you will likely leave within a month or two. He is a joke. He threatens to sue and/or file complaints against former employees and clients. Ha Ha. This is coming from a guy who is constantly being sued and has had many many complaints filed against him. So scared. Not.

17th of Jun, 2011 by Don't be a victim of Manchanda

Don't base on the good review he had. He probably wrote it himself. Don't let him fool you. He WILL PROMISE YOU HE CAN FIX ANY PROBLEM YOU HAVE. He will take everything from you including, home, car, life savings and the SAD part is this guy don't even care. ALL HE WANTS IS YOUR MONEY. Let me tell you all about this guy. 1st -He will tell you your case is very easy and common (Such a nice guy during the first phone consultation--REMEMBER this is before you sign the retainer) then he will tell you come to his office and sign a $5,000 retainer (so he can begin to be your hero). When you are at the office, these people are so well trained on how to convince you to sign it. They make you feel like it's just a piece of paper that needs a signature. After you sign it and pay your dues, once you leave the office EVERYTHING changes (Now you are trapped). 2nd - Your first $5,000 may last you um... one to three weeks or it could be less. One to three weeks for $5,000 makes you believe it might be reasonable because they just started on the case so they need time to go over it. But wait, after that EVERY WEEK you will be billed anywhere from $1,000 - $5,000 it could be more (without your permission for going over the retainer). Seriously, it looks like his clients are his personal credit card. He will run your bill $20,000 to $50,000 in no time. 3rd His attorney rates are $300-$400 an hour and there are other rates for paralegals and office clerks. Don't be surprised when you get your bill because 98% of time you will be billed for attorney rates. On the retainer it lists all the different rates but when you get your bill it is like there are no paralegals and office clerks even exist because everything is billed at ATTORNEY'S RATE. (EX. You pay $300-$400 an hour for somebody put a stamp on a letter to send it out or retrieve any information on your file if necessary from folders) The weird part is anybody can take your payment but nobody is allowed to discuss billing besides Rahul Manchanda. (I forgot to mention after the first phone consultation with Rahul then you sign the retainer, you will NEVER hear from this crook Rahul Manchanda again until he wants MOREEEEEEEEE money from you. (Almost weekly basis) He is the guy that gets you in the door then it is time to start collecting MONEYYYYY.) You will have pay however many hours he says his attorney has worked for you, basically with no proof. Sometimes he may send you an invoice stating the charges but NO Proof from any attorneys that have contributed the time. He generates bills and adds extra hours that weren't even legitimate. The invoice is not very detail. (EX. Tom did a research.....4 hours---- $1600 then two days later Tom continue research.....5 hours----$2000) $300-$400 an hour? Let's do the math here based on $300 an hour. $300/60minutes that's $5 per minute, so people..... every Extra Minute he charges it takes almost average people an hour job. Again, every EXTRA MINUTE he charges it takes almost average people an hour job. 4th Please be advised No Employees, including ATTORNEYS can ever last very long working here. (2-3 months Wonder Why?????????) If you hire him be prepared for new attorneys anytime. (Remember every time they have new attorney your file would have to be reviewed or studied all over again, THE PRICE WILL BE BILLED TO YOU $300-$400 AN HOUR. No questions asked. He makes so much money on billing Clients but his Employees are always fired without PAY including Attorneys! Wow!? How does he do that? 5th After you sign the retainer Rahul Manchanda will never respond to you other than you sending him payment information or involving getting payment to him. Sounds funny doesn't it? Again he will not respond to your questions other than getting MONEYYYYYY to him. I think this says it all.

Finally, loving people with good hearts that needed help..... please take my advice and don't fall in this trap. Don't take what his website and his brochure says even though he will e-mail it to you everytime. That's how it got most people because it is very persuasive (bunch of false advertising). Go somewhere else and find a good attorney to represent you. If you don't believe me and want to get a second opinion or third or or thirtieth just Google this firm. Check out how many complaints and reports they have. They are all 100% true. (/link removed/

If you are a victim of this firm please write a review. (Ex Employees or Clients)

I believe one day justice will be served for this guy for what he has done to too many good families in this country. Don't worry if he threatens you in anyway. Take him to court. He has no legs to stand on. If you don't speak English don't worry hire a translator and take him to court because he will try to threaten and scare you!

Another Bernie Madoff! What a Crook!!!

I agree completely that Manchanda is a thief! I posted the original over the immigration case of my husband. I wasted 2 years of mine, my daughter's and husband life with this law firm. I was promised the world of getting my husband home and then we were going to sue the government for doing harm to my family for the government mistakes in paperwork. Non of that happened except being harassed to hand over more and more money with nothing to show for. I even have emails on Thanksgiving Day harassing me to give more money to him. What human does such a thing? Manchanda is a ruthless, liar, thief that should not even have a license to practice law! After all the money I gave him I had to hire another attorney which thank God I found for the first time a legit hard working immigration attorney who actually fought for my family and within a year in a half got my husband back. If anyone who is in the process of suing this man please contact me because I am will to testify against this thief and hopefully get our money back and have him loose his license! Complaint / review text:

Rahul Manchanda has become the many bad person I've actually achieved. I'm embarrassed to express I worked for him to get a quantity of weeks, for the reason that period I noticed more than 10 lawyers come and proceed, more than 10 official supervisors/paralegal come and go since Rahul Manchanda is definitely an abusive fraud artist. He averages roughly one club criticism each week against him, one-fee challenge each week against him, and 2 lawsuits against him monthly. He does not spend his lease, his fees, his resources, his workers, or every other expenses.

He's simply no understanding of regulations and continuously lies. He employs small lawyers who're simply understanding and costs them at $350/hour while he gives them $15/time. Occasionally, he'd not really pay us since he does not have the cash.

He'd trick us into overbilling and technique customers into spending more. Individuals actually paid $40,000 for anything every other lawyer might do for $5000.00

He guaranteed to pay for medical health insurance for just one of his pregnant workers, than before she'd her kid he ended her plan retroactively, sticking her with more than 10,000 in medical expenses to conserve herself $1000.00. This really is after I eventually had enough and stop.

He's currently suing usacomplaints.com to try and conceal his terrible activities. He also employed a business to place usacomplaints.com reduce on the google research therefore people wouldn't have the ability to think it is once they look for him. He's actually a felony!!

Please avoid him. Should you currently employed him, please document charge conflicts and grievances using the Ny State Bar affiliation and please employ additional lawyers to prosecute him. Follow the hyperlink below to find out more on the best way to do that. He's an embarrassment towards the exercise of regulation and any good remarks you continue reading below were compiled by him on the phony mail. I don't understand one customer which was pleased with his solutions, actually they'd frequently plead me to depart the company and manage their instances by myself. Rahul Manchanda is just a shame. This is actually the connect to club grievances and charge conflicts, goodluck:
